Knights of Labor Favor the Firemen Getting One Day in Seven.

District 30, Knights of Labor, which is now largely composed of city employes of Boston, severely censured Mayor Matthews for his action in the firemen's case, at a meeting held before the State Legislature giving the firemen of this city one full day's rest in seven, and for his remarks at Park Commissioner Livermore.

Two sets of resolutions were adopted. Whereas, his honor the Mayor of Boston, at the suggestion of the board of the commissioners, has seen fit to oppose the petition of the firemen for the passage of the 10th hour petition, saying that body comprising the fire commissioners of all Massachusetts cities and towns to allow their employes one day's leave of absence out of seven; and

Whereas, this district assembly believes, and we think as a cardinal principle, that no man should be required to work more than six days in every week, therefore be it

Resolved, That this district assembly enters a protest against the action of the mayor and the said board of fire commissioners.

Resolutions were also adopted advocating the sale of new issues of stock of railroad corporations at public auction, and calling for the placing of electric wires under ground.

"HUNYADI" WATERS.

Paragraphs have recently appeared in some Newspapers how stating that a New York firm of mineral water dealers are the largest in America of the Hunyadi Janos water. The fact is that the largest dealers agents in the United States for the famous Hunyadi Springs of Hungary.

These springs are ABSOLUTELY OPEN, and the water with which they are made is obvious.

Proof of the springs having extended to them, for a term of years still unexpired, the sole sale of the Hunyadi Janos Water, and the name Hunyadi Janos Water having become very popular, quite a number of other Waters are now offered for sale, some under, of which the word Hunyadi forms part, and in boxes, and with labels, closely resembling those of the genuine water those long used for Hunyadi Janos Water.

The word "Hunyadi" having become a generic name, The Apollinaris Company, Limited, of London, The Apollinaris Company advised to the notice of Hunyadi Janos, the Hungarian Home Water of which they have still the sole sale, a small Yellow Label with their Red Diamond, the oldest Trade Mark in the world, and that the Label of the Public that its bottle is labelled is sold by The Apollinaris Company, Limited.

SMUGGLED DRUGS

Peddled Through Streets of East Boston.

Led to Arrest of Charles Fobbins of Yarmouth Steamer.

Charged with Being John Crowell's Confederate.

The United States Treasury Agents Got Suspicious.

Their Prompt Action Will Have Far-Reaching Results.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The Treasury Department is advised of the arrest in Boston of Charles Fobbins, an employe of the steamer of Charles Fobbins, on suspicion of the Boston & Yarmouth U. S. Steamship line, charged with smuggling subsistence and shenanigan.

Search warrants were sold to a number of the steamers.

The arrest is regarded as important, and the results are expected to be far-reaching.

CROWELL'S CONFEDERATE.

The Exact Charge Against Fobbins—He is Held in $500.

The arrest of Charles Fobbins referred to in the Washington despatch took place in Boston on March 3, being made by United States Deputy Marshal Hurley.

According to the statements of the treasury officials this morning he was charged with being a confederate of John G. Crowell of East Boston, who was arrested on March 2 by Deputy Marshal Hurley on the charge of carrying liquors in violation of the internal revenue laws.

It is alleged that Crowell is alleged to have conveyed the drug stores of East Boston with the evident intention of selling drugs which were known to have been smuggled over the Canadian border without the payment of duty.

The information that this man was at resorting to sell these goods to East Boston druggists came to the ears of the officers of the special agent's office of the treasury department, and the result was the alleged culprit was shadowed.

On March 6, the officers followed him the greater part of the afternoon, and finally Marshal Galloupe took him into custody.

He said his name was J. G. Crowell, age 30, and that he resided at 61 Brooks st., East Boston.

He is confined with bonds made a full confession of his crimes to the officers.

It is alleged that he had disposed of a quantity of valuable drugs on which no duty had been paid.

It was thought that the arrest might be supplemented by the arrest of others who were said to have been concerned in the matter, but thus far only Fobbins has been taken into custody.

He was taken before Commissioner Page on the morning after his arrest and liberated on $500 bail.

Fobbins was an officer on the steamer Bon on the Yarmouth line. Little is known about him here, he is supposed to have been employed on the steamer only a few months. It is not known at what date of his joining the crew cannot be ascertained.

TOOK ANOTHER DRINK

After a Fall from the Gallery Into the Crowded Orchestra.

NEW YORK, March 14.—A performance was given last night for the benefit of Nick Cramer in Harry Moore's Theatre at 5.15 o'clock last evening.

The performer was Nick Crane, a cart driver. He was hustling for a good seat in the gallery when he fell from the gallery into the rail. In his flight he struck the cushioned balustrade. He caromed and fell, feet first, into the crowded orchestra.

Everybody in the orchestra heard the loud smash when Crane struck the rail. Everybody but the leader turned around and looked at the performer crawl over the balcony rail and fragmented seats and struggle through the smoky cannon.

The performer appeared on the stage, which had been cleared of the frightened sheet, and the scene was continued.

The audience in the orchestra chairs in the line of Nick's fall dodged their heads, and Nick's body landed on their shoulders, but his feet on the back of a chair.

Then Nick fell on the floor and into the aisle. He lay there a few seconds and got up and walked out assisted by ushers, into the cafe. He swallowed two drinks and went to one finger and asked for another drink.

He was taken to an ambulance to the New York Hospital, but the doctors declared that he was drunk.

He fell 50 feet in two instalments.
